

Guiding Principles

Participants will be recreational players that enjoy and play the sport for the sheer love of the game. These players would not normally get the opportunity to represent their community. The games are intended to provide an enhanced environment, which permits players to experience a travel opportunity and meet new friends in friendly competition. All players should get the opportunity to play. Although equal ice time is impossible to implement, each player should be able to enjoy “fair” ice time at the games. The games are not intended to be a “win at all cost” competition. The intent is not for players to have not only a competitive experience, but gain experience through participation.

The TEAM FIRST initiative shall apply through all preliminary and final competitions.
